INDIANA CONSPIRACY CASE
AFFAIRS IN TEXAS.
FENIAN MEETING IN BOSTON.
New York, March 16.
The Herald's Washington special says:
In the Supreme Court Mr. Stabury, of Ohio, and Attorney General Speed closed

The arguments on behalf of the Government were made by the attorney, William H. Dudley Field, of New York, will sum up on Monday for the petitioners.

The 13th Connecticut regiment, retained in service for 18 months, has had its term of enlistment has been more than fulfilled, and great irritation among the soldiers has been caused. The 38th Illinois regiment is in the same predicament.

General Taylor and Fremont arrived in Washington yesterday.

Forty troops were discharged from the Treasury Department yesterday.

There is little to be done any account of the political affairs in Texas. There is little if any loyalty outside of the army and if our troops were withdrawn there would be none anywhere. Greenbacks are but seldom acknowledged to have any value, and gold and silver places goods that will not buy food or fuel. The idea that they will ever be able to get on their feet is a farfetched one. Matters are daily growing worse. On the 10th of March Senator Howard another installment of testimony will be ready for publication. Something which is that of several rebel Generals.

The Treasury Department yesterday afternoon received a letter from the War Department announcing the death of Luther Haven, collector of that port. His successor has not yet been appointed.

On the 10th of March 1864

Wm. H. Connor and James Mitchell, aged about 18 years, were arraigned yesterday on a charge of forgery. Connor procured blank checks from the principal banks of the city, and with these he had been, and forged the name of the firm on three checks for $200, $5,000 and $1,000 on

The two first-named sums, but the third was the cause of their discovery. The first was Gray, a saloon keeper on Broadway, and the second was Alex. Gray, who was the occasion of being concerned in the scheme. The case is still under investigation. Twenty distilled spirits were seized in this city yesterday by the revenue officers on the charge of their proprietors defrauding the government by permitting to pay the impost levied on high spirits under the revenue law. The charges against the parties will probably be investigated to day.

NEW YORK, March 10.

The Times' Washington special says that Hon. F. Thomas, of Maryland, in a speech before the House of Congress on behalf of the State for damages on account of the burning of two bridges over the Potomac river, at Frederick, destroyed by order of Law-

Wallace the battle of Monocacy. He was ordered the burning of the bridges to retard Early's march upon Washington. The deployment of the troops was such that they had to guard the bridges. The overpowered numbers of Early's troops were making it impracticable to concentrate the Federal forces to hold the rebelling check.

The further consideration of the battle of Monocacy will be given on Wednesday or Thursday next. The friends of the bill have confidence in its passage, several of the members, with the exception of a few, are in the Senate, and their intention of supporting it.

As the New Haven freight, which has

At Harle's bridge for the Albany anti-Troy express to pass, the boiler of the locomotive exploded, blowing the engine and everything connected with it. The explosion instantly killing the fireman and dangerously wounding the engineer. The train lay on the tracks for nearly an hour and a half, and the Boston express about thirty minutes, by the accident.

Boston, March 9.

A grand Fenian demonstration was held in Music Hall last evening. The theatre was crowded to its full capacity, and thousands were turned away, unable to obtain entrance. Addresses were made by O'Mahoney, Captain O'Brien, and John J. McLaughlin, of England, and Haggerty, of New York; P. J. Sinnat, C. C. J. Fitzgerald, Central Committee, and others. The resolutions were presented by J. McLaughlin.

of New york, which were unanimously adopted. Great enthusiasm was manifested by the crowd, and the speakers were closely surrounded by a large number of Fenian boys who were disposed of.

NEW YORK, March 10.

There was an immense Fenian meeting at Cooper Institute last evening. Stirring speeches were made by Messrs. Rafferty, McKay, W. Brown, Train and others. The Fenian excitement shows no abatement this morning.

The World's Washington special says: Judge Peckham, who presided at the hearing yesterday, authorized their chairman to report an important bill to restore the authority of States lately in rebellion. It provides that in all cases where an loyal citizen of the United States has died in the service of his country, the right to him or her within any of the States

States, on any order, proceeding, or discharge from the military forces stationed within that particular State or district, by an order of the commanding general, to be restored to the former person or persons aggrieved the possession and right which they have been unjustly deprived of, or to protect them in the same.

RUFFALO, N. Y., March 10.

Dispatches from Canada show great excitement there. Bishop Dinck has denounced the Fenian movement. All persons in Canada are searched, and arms taken when found. "Express goods and freight" are also searched, and persons and volunteers are collecting in large numbers.

number. The Customs Department has issued a circular to collectors stating that it is not to be considered the abrogation of the reciprocity treaty will have the effect of reviving the duty on the importation of raw cotton. The present limit of free goods, which are to be of the growth of the United States, is to be maintained until the Legislature shall deem it advisable to reimpose duties on goods imported from any other country. The fruits of the growth of the United States, such as wheat, corn, cotton, wool, hides, skins, beaver and tails undressed with the exception of beaver tails, are to be imported duty free, after March 17, by the collector to a duty of 2 per cent.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—President Johnson has assured George T. Davis, a colored man, that he will be delegated at present in this city, as hereby the colored people of the South

Mr. Downing has received a letter from South Carolina from the parties to the Freedmen's Bureau bill, in which they might suddenly be removed, from the lands they were cultivating, fears which were expressed by the Freedmen's Bureau bill. When fact was presented to the President, he gave the above assurance.

W. H. SHERSON, March 11.

The House to-day was in Committee of the Whole, nothing being in order general debate on the President's message.

Mr. Orth, of Indiana, addressed the House in support of the Freedmen's bill. Congress as against the policy of the
